Re: FOIA Request NLRB-2023-000938

Dear Erin Ashley (WORT 89.9 FM):

This is in response to your request, under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552, received on March 2, 2023, in which you seek “all documents, including letters and petitions, related to” Madison Sourdough, Case No. 18-RC-313019. You assumed financial responsibility for the processing of your request in the amount of $37.00.

We acknowledged your request on March 2, 2023.

Your request is denied in part and granted in part, as explained below.

After conducting a search of the Agency’s electronic casehandling system, NxGen, I have confirmed that the requested case is a recently filed, open case before the Agency’s Subregion 30 Milwaukee office. As such, I have determined that certain case file records that may be responsive to your request are exempt from disclosure pursuant to Exemption 7(A) of the FOIA. 5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(7)(A). Exemption 7(A) allows an agency to withhold records included in an open investigatory file where disclosure could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings. See NLRB v. Robbins Tire & Rubber Co., 437 U.S. 214, 236 (1978). Therefore, given the open status of the ongoing election/representation proceedings before the Region, any investigatory records in the case file are, and will continue to be, withheld in full pursuant to Exemption 7(A) while the case remains open.

Your request is granted to the extent that I have attached the formal records in the case, which are available to the public pursuant to NLRB FOIA regulations, regardless of the open/closed status of the case. The formal records at this time include the petition, the initial docketing letters to the parties, and the Notices of Appearance filed by the Employer.

Please note that Exemption 7(A) protection is “temporal in nature.” Citizens for Responsibility & Ethics in Wash. v. Dep’t of Justice, 746 F.3d 1082, 1097 (D.C. Cir 2014) (citing NLRB v. Robbins Tire, 437 U.S. 214, 223-24 230-32 (1978)). As such, certain case file records may become disclosable, subject to applicable exemptions, after the case closes, that is, a certification of results has issued, a bargaining representative has been certified, or the matter is otherwise closed under Agency procedures. Accordingly, you may wish to file a new request at that time.

The status of this case can be tracked on the Agency website at www.nlr.gov by going to the Cases & Decisions tab, clicking case search, entering the case number in the search box and viewing the case page or by clicking the link here: <https://www.nlr.gov/case/18-RC-313019>.

For the purpose of assessing fees, we have placed you in Category C, as a representative of the news media, in that you qualify as a person “actively gathering news for an entity that is organized and operated to publish or broadcast news to the public.” NLRB Rules and Regulations, 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(1)(vii). Accordingly, there is no charge assessed for this request.

You may contact Jodilyn Breirather, the FOIA Specialist who processed your request, at (414) 930-7208 or by email at Jodilyn.Breirather@nlrb.gov, as well as the Agency’s FOIA Public Liaison, for any further assistance and/or to discuss any aspect of your request. The FOIA Public Liaison, in addition to the FOIA Specialist, can further explain responsive and releasable agency records, suggest agency offices that may have responsive records, and/or discuss how to narrow the scope of a request in order to minimize fees and processing times. The contact information for the Agency’s FOIA Public Liaison is:

Kristine M. Minami, FOIA Public Liaison

Any appeal must be postmarked or electronically submitted within 90 calendar days of the date of this letter. Any appeal should contain a complete statement of the reasons upon which it is based.

Please be advised that contacting any Agency official (including the FOIA Specialist, FOIA Officer, or the FOIA Public Liaison) and/or OGIS does not stop the 90-day appeal clock and is not an alternative or substitute for filing an administrative appeal.

Sincerely,

/s/ Synta E. Keeling
